

recall, on General File this bill got 32-0 votes, but on Select File the Omaha realtors, N.P. Dodge in particular, you'll recall their telegram asking you to kill this bill last year. The Omaha realtors came down on Select File, those who don't want the public to know what their rights are, those that don't want them to have full information before they make the biggest financial transaction of their life. But again, on this particular amendment you can vote easily and I'm sure the realtors won't object because they are simply housekeeping bills or amendments. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the adoption of the Higgins amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of Senator Higgins' amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion passes.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Higgins would move to amend. Senator, this is...I have AM1785 which is on page 419 of the Journal.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Higgins, please.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Higgins, may I introduce some guests before we begin on this, please.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Certainly.

SPEAKER NICHOL: In the north balcony we have several students, fourth graders from two schools in Fremont, Nebraska, who are guests of Senator Lowell Johnson. They are 52 fourth graders from Northside and Lincoln Schools in Fremont and they are accompanied by three teachers. Would you folks please stand and be recognized by the Legislature? Incidentally, you children may note that the man sitting to my right attended Lincoln Grade School in Fremont, Nebraska, so some day you may be here. Thank you for visiting us. Senator Higgins, thank you.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Which amendment, Mr. O'Donnell, are we on
