

call. Members sitting here, please look up to the front board and record your presence and you are properly to be in your seats. Members outside the Chamber, State Senators, please return to the Chamber, the house is under call. Senator Lamb, Senator Rupp. Senator Rupp, Senator Warner, Senator Wesely, Senator Schmit, Senator Lamb, Senator Smith, Senator Morehead, Senator Hannibal, Senator Withem, Senator Higgins, Senator Pappas, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Eret, Senator Pirsch. Members throughout the Capitol Building, the house is under call, please return to the Chamber. Senator Wesely, Schmit, Lamb, Morehead, thank you, Labedz, Higgins, Pappas, Rupp. The house is under call. Members, please return to the Chamber. Senator Higgins, please record your presence or have your presence recorded. Senator Wesely, Schmit, Lamb. Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Schmit is here. Senator Rod Johnson, please return to the Chamber. Senator Rod Johnson, the house is under call. Senator Schmit, please record your presence. How do you wish to handle the vote, Senator Johnson? Pardon me, Senator Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I am just asking if it is correct to assume that there are only 45 members currently present. That would mean that 23 votes would overrule the Chair, would it not?

PRESIDENT: We are under call of the house and we are still waiting for Senator Johnson. We need 24 votes providing we can find Senator Johnson. The house will remain under call until otherwise moved. Senator Johnson is on his way.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: All right, fine. Then I would just go ahead and ask for a roll call vote, please.

PRESIDENT: We are told Senator Rod Johnson is on his way. Senator Vard Johnson asked that we proceed. May we have quiet in the Chamber, please, so that the Clerk may hear your vote. A roll call has been requested. The question is, shall the Chair be overruled? There is a request for reverse order. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 510 of the Legislative Journal.) 18 ayes, 22 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The Chair...by that vote, the Chair's ruling is sustained. The Chair is not overruled. Now we are back to
