

best.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, Senator Johnson...

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: That's what I have done.

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...if five attorneys...you decided from the evidence given to you that it was being enforced, but four others showed you that it wasn't, would this tend to sway you that there is a possibility that the law is not being enforced? What I'm leading up to, Senator Johnson, is this. If there is a question that the law is not being enforced and it is not being enforced, then we should do one or two things. We should enforce it or do away with it. But I guess what I am asking you is would you look at it...

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...in an unbiased position...

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...and would you listen to other people's arguments who say that it is not being enforced?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Baack, please.

SENATOR BAACK: (Response inaudible.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. It takes 25 votes to cease debate. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Debate has ceased. Senator Vard Johnson, would you like to close, please.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, I'd like to have a call of the house, please.
