

district as he so chooses to do because I have no problem defending the programs that are on the books right now and I would suggest if any member of this body would like to know more about what the programs that are in place right now are doing, I am sure that Mark Nannen and the people at the conservation district would be more than happy to provide you with information on this issue. So, with that, Mr. President, I have no problem and I would be happy to support his amendment.

PRESIDENT: Do you wish to close, Senator Vickers?

SENATOR VICKERS: Only to indicate that I...as I indicated earlier, I think this is the correct way to proceed and then vote up or down on the bill itself, and I can assure you I am not going to offer any more amendments following this one. But I would like to ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: Is it fair to say the sense of the amendment is the abolition of the sunset?

SENATOR VICKERS: That is exactly right.

PRESIDENT: The motion is for the house to come under call. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 11 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The house is under call. All members in the Legislature, please look up to the board and turn on your presence light. Members outside the Chamber, please return, the house is under call. Please come in and record your presence on the board. Members sitting in the Chamber, please look up to the front of the house and see that your green light is on. State Senators throughout the building, please return to the Legislative Chamber, the house is under call. Seven members are excused at the present time. The house is under call. All members come into the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Nelson, Senator Chizek. Senator Rod Johnson, please record your presence. Senator Conway, Senator Schmit and Lamb. Senator Goodrich. Senator Chizek, Senator Goodrich. Senator Chizek is excused. Senator Nelson, Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Goodrich and Nelson. Senator Lamb. Senator Schmit, please record your presence. Senators Lamb