

after all these years that pique expressed by him as an individual or if 29 or more sign a letter against me is not going to make any difference whatsoever in terms of how I discharge my duty as a legislator just as it seems to make no difference to anybody on this floor when they have a particular issue whether it is their own or they are fronting and mouthpiecing for a special interest group. I am going to use my time on the floor of this Legislature as I see fit. Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad and this bill has drawn MADD into the discussion. I am talking about the Mothers Against Drunk Driving. They are angry, very angry. And apparently some people...well, I can't say some, I will just limit it to the one who spoke. One person in here is upset with what I am doing. What is that to me? Nothing. I have other amendments up there and until somebody successfully offers a motion to suspend the rules and vote without further discussion or debate, if I see fit to put a thousand amendments up there, that is exactly what I am going to do and Senator Landis and all the Legions of Hades cannot stop me without that successful motion. I am one of those people who if I believe in an issue will wage war until hell freezes over and then continue the battle on the ice whether I have ice skates or not. Some people may see this as an unimportant issue but when these lawyers bring up a few bills down the way, a bill talking about prejudgment interest, I am going to see how much time they want to spend discussing that.

SENATOR MARSH: Thirty seconds, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I want to listen to all of the whining about the injured plaintiff. Our principles expand and contract on cue. Yes, Senator Marsh, when we talk about the Women's Commission, we are going to hear some arguments made just like I am making today.

SENATOR MARSH: Time is up. Your time is up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: On this one, but I have the right to close.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Madam President and members of the body, isn't it a little ironic, it's not funny, that the original DWI bill that was put out of the Judiciary Committee was
