

amendment by Senator Chambers. All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. A record vote has been requested. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: (Read the record vote. See pages 649-50 of the Legislative Journal. 14 ayes, 22 nays.)

SENATOR MARSH: The amendment is not adopted. What else is on the bill, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Madam President, the next amendment is by Senator Chambers. In line 1 after the word "of" add "a horse trailer or other vehicle conveying livestock."

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam...

SENATOR MARSH: The call is raised. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam Chairperson and members of the Legislature, I think this nag has probably been ridden just about to death, so I am not going to be sitting on it when it dies. I am going to withdraw that motion and any others that I have up there and let those who have produced this candidate for the glue factory go ahead and get their vote on it.

SENATOR MARSH: Thank you, Senator Chambers. The amendments are withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Madam President, excuse me, I have nothing further on the bill.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Madam President and colleagues, we have spent more time on this issue than we need to. At the beginning of the morning you were handed out a document that describes what this bill does. And, once again, it is a carefully balanced piece of legislation that is intended to afford those individuals who suffer from a 60 day license suspension, who would lose their jobs, the opportunity to apply for a work permit, not for driving to and from work but for driving on the job only. Now, during the debate we have received the statistics on statewide drunk driving arrests, 1984, 1985. In 1984 there were 12,000 arrests and approximately 7800 convictions. In 1985 there were 10,000
