

Senator Chambers, it is also one big waste of this...the Legislature's time. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Chambers, then Senator Haberman.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, since now we are getting into some serious issues, spending the taxpayer's money to undo something the taxpayers have done by a vote, I have a couple of questions I want to ask Senator DeCamp.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp, would you respond, please.

SENATOR DECAMP: It depends on what the questions are.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator DeCamp, oh, well, these are right up your alley.

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator DeCamp, I should say right down your line. (Laughter.) Senator DeCamp, if the Attorney General makes a determination, now answer the questions as I ask them, if you will,...

SENATOR DECAMP: I will.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that there are no operations currently in violation of Initiative 300, of what value will this study be?

SENATOR DECAMP: It will be of tremendous value. The issue isn't so much whether there are or are not corporations in violation. The issue is what is allowed and what is not allowed.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay,...

SENATOR DECAMP: And the fact that something is forbidden and somebody isn't doing something doesn't mean that the law is right. For example,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, I have a couple more questions. Wait a minute.

SENATOR DECAMP: No, I've got to use a real good example for
