language that can be used to deal with what we fear the most, the terroristic organization or the paramilitary kind of organization where all members have base motives and can reach it properly. We commit an offense to our Constitution if we pass legislation that could be more carefully refined to deal with the evil that we intend to address. That is the function of the bracket motion.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to bracket this bill to a time certain, namely March 1st. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Twenty-five votes are required. Motion is made to bracket the bill to the date of March 1st.
Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you voted? Fifteen seconds to record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion failed and Senator Nichol had a motion on the floor for the question to be called. We are back to the Chambers amendment and the next speaker that I have on the board here is Senator Hoagland. Senator Hoagland, do you wish to speak on the Chambers amendment?
Senator Chizek. Going through my names here on the list.
We are back to the Chambers amendment.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: (Microphone not activated)...to do is call the question at the earliest appropriate moment, Mr. President. If it is appropriate to call the question now, that is what I would do.

PRESIDENT: I will accept your motion to call the question.
Do I see five seconding hands? I do. The question is, shall the debate close on the current Chambers amendment?
All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. The motion is to cease debate on the current Chambers amendment.
Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. Senator Chambers, you may close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I am glad that Senator Vard Johnson said what
