

bill out of committee. As I understand this vote we have now suspended the rules and we have reconsidered the earlier vote. That has been done. We have yet to take a vote on whether to pull the bill out of committee.

PRESIDENT: Now we are going to do that.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: This morning. Good.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, may I say to you if the purpose of this is to drag this until twelve o'clock, I sure as heck don't go along with it. This could well happen on this type of bill. As you know you are putting the pressure on me to get going on this session. If you do it, you are doing it to yourself. Those are your bills. I can live without another bill being passed this year as far as I am personally concerned, other than appropriations and revenue bills. But if you want to start and continue this, then it is up to you. So, Mr. President, what I am saying is go ahead and advance the bill or bring it out of committee, whatever you want to do. But I sure as heck hope you don't take from now until noon to do it, and if you do you are giving up some of your bills in the future. So the time has come for me to say to you we are going to have a little Sunday school right now. If you prolong the thing out, as we have some the past few days, look out, you are not even going to get through your personal priority bills. It should be said, and it should be said now since we are almost halfway through the session, that if you want to do this to yourself and your colleagues, it is up to you not to me. There is only so much I can do, and you well know you are putting the pressure on me like crazy the last couple of days and will today, too, which I don't mind. But you have it in your hands as to how fast you proceed, not in my hands. So with that, Mr. President, I suggest that we do go on to the other vote.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to raise the bill and it is debatable. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, this is on a point of order.

PRESIDENT: Very well.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: First of all, the Speaker's agenda was
