

SENATOR HARTNETT: Senator Haberman.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Haberman

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Hartnett, the board will be made up of a ophthalmologist, an optometrist, and a lay person.

SENATOR HARTNETT: But that is only three, you are talking about six.

SENATOR HABERMAN: It says strike two and insert three on line 15.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Oh, I see, so you are going to have it going from a four-member board to a three-member board?

SENATOR HABERMAN: It says the optometrist board shall be at six including one lay person and we are leaving on...

SENATOR HARTNETT: My time is going to run out here.

SENATOR HABERMAN: It will be two ophthalmologist dispensers, one licensed physician and one lay person.

SENATOR CHRONISTER: Okay, Section 7, one member shall be a licensed physician specializing in ophthalmology, one shall be a licensed optometrist...

SENATOR HARTNETT: And one a lay person, that is three. Where is the other six?

SENATOR CHRONISTER: Three members shall be ophthalmologist dispensers.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Oh, okay, thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Haberman. Were you through, Senator Hartnett? All right, Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Will I...we are speaking to the amendment?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes, we are speaking to the Chronister amendment?
