PRESIDENT: The motion carried and the debate is closed and the Chair recognizes for closing Senator Lundy. You may close, Senator.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President and members of the body, I think that the information that has come out from Senator Vard Johnson I am sure is pertinent to many people.

PRESIDENT: The call is raised.

SENATOR LUNDY: I would remind you that the City of Omaha and the City of Lincoln already have this kind of legislation, this kind of authority. Now we also suggest that relative to Senator Vickers comments that this should not become a law because it just simply adds on and adds on and adds on. I would suggest that with this kind of law you have authority to...the governing body after a vote of the
