

They were so proud this morning when we were on one bill, I forget what it was, but Senator Johnson was trying to offer some amendments to it and they thought their senator was voting correctly because he voted against Senator Johnson's amendment, then when I explained that Senator Johnson's amendment would have gutted that bill, they said, well, he should have been voting for the amendment. I said, right, so what do you think of your senator now? They thought differently. So it is necessary for the public to be apprised.

SENATOR LAMB: Thirty seconds, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I'm going to do that apprising. But I say again, these lobbyists ought to go back to their bosses and tell them, you cannot pay me enough to do what I have to do, but you ought to pay me more than what you are paying me right now. And they are doing it strictly for money and no other reason. But we, as members of the Legislature, are not bound like that. Principles should move us.

SENATOR LAMB: The Chair recognizes Senator Haberman. Oh, first, Senator, there is an announcement. The Committee on Committees is meeting over in the Senator's Lounge at the present time. Committee on Committees in the Senator's Lounge. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: (Response inaudible.)

SENATOR LAMB: Are you calling the question?

SENATOR HABERMAN: (Response inaudible.)

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Haberman calls for the question. Are there five seconds? I see three seconds. I see five seconds. Those in support of ceasing debate vote aye, those opposed vote no. Have you all voted to cease debate? Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Call of the house.

SENATOR LAMB: Call of the house has been requested. All those in support vote aye, those opposed vote no.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to go under call,
