LB 289, 768

CLERK: 28 ayes, 4 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Hannibal's amendment.

SENATOR LAMB: The amendment is adopted. Senator Hannibal, what is your pleasure.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: It's been explained, sir. I'd move for the advancement of the bill.

SENATOR LAMB: Motion is the advancement of the bill. Those in support vote aye, those opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record vote has been requested. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read record vote as found on page 1296 of the Legislative Journal.) 33 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on advancement of the bill.

SENATOR LAMB: The bill has been advanced. The next bill is LB 768.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I might, right before that, Committee on Committees will meet in the Lounge, just for a brief moment. Committee on Committees.

SENATOR CARSTEN PRESIDING

SENATOR CARSTEN: The call is raised.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 768 was a bill introduced by Senator Haberman. (Read.) It was read on January 8, referred to Ag and Environment, advanced to General File. There are committee amendments pending, Mr. President. (Standing Committee amendments appear on page 989 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CARSTEN: On the committee amendments, Senator Johnson, please.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, members, I would like to first of all point out that the amendments by the committee do change the complexity of the bill completely. Originally introduced LB 768 would have eliminated the tractor test facility. Under the amendments that are being offered as committee amendments, we do almost a 160 degree turn around, or a 180 degree turn around and provide that the testing facility will remain at the University of Nebraska, but it
