

SENATOR CARSTEN: Yes, the call has never been raised.

SENATOR VICKERS: I want everybody to check in then.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Will everybody please check in so we know who is here.

SPEAKER NICHOL PRESIDING

SPEAKER NICHOL: We need Senator Chambers, Senator Lowell Johnson, Senator Lamb, Senator Landis, Senator Peterson. Senator Wesely, would you record your presence, please. Thank you. We are looking for (recorder malfunction) Senator Lamb are the only two left. While we are waiting for those, may I remind you that Senator Landis would certainly like to have you return your survey sheets having to do with the constitutional officers' salary bill. So if you have not done so, please return that survey leaflet to Senator Landis. While I have you confined and a captive audience, members, we are thinking of starting Final Reading at eighty-thirty Friday morning again because we have a couple of longies and we think they will be back down for Final Reading on Friday morning. So plan to convene at eight-thirty Friday morning. Can't seem to find Senator Chambers. Do you wish to go ahead without him? Pardon me?

SENATOR VICKERS: Is he excused?

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, he is not.

SENATOR VICKERS: Have you sent a Sergeant at Arms after him?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Can't seem to find him.

SENATOR VICKERS: Who else are we waiting on? There are two on the board. Who is the other one?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Lamb is not here and he is not excused either.

SENATOR VICKERS: Well, go ahead, I guess.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. The question is the advancement of the bill so will you please hold your conversation down so the Clerk can hear. (Gavel.) Gentlemen, Senator DeCamp,
