

contour of this particular sales tax exemption. I think the $62,000 is probably low. It amazes me that Senator Haberman though could come in with a bill that not only would take $4 million out of the tax base but in addition would cost $62,000 to administer.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Hall, please.

SENATOR HALL: Question.

SENATOR CARSTEN: The question has been called for. All those in favor of ceasing debate...do I see five hands? I do. All those in favor of ceasing debate will vote aye, those opposed will vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 24 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, to cease debate.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Abboud was next on the list, I believe.

SENATOR ABOUD: Mr. President and colleagues, I voted against the kill motion on LB 219 and I also voted to advance 219 to Select File. It wasn't for any...I realize part of the reason why I voted to advance these bills was because of the plight of the farmer and the terrible economic distress that is going on on the farm at this time and anything I can do to help the farmer, I certainly will. I do realize that we are under fiscal restraints though and I was hoping that Senator Haberman and I am hoping Senator Haberman will, on Select File, come up with this treasure trove and find an additional $4 million or I will not be voting to advance LB 219 beyond Select File. At this time, I am not going to vote to advance the A bill to 219. I think it ought to stay on General File and wait and see if we do have the money to advance LB 219 beyond Select. So at this time I would stand to agree with Senator Vard Johnson who is in opposition to advancing the A bill at this time. Thank you.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Haberman, please.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, Mr. President and members of the body, I am just having some sheets printed to pass out to show the A bill at $25,000 according to our own legislative fiscal analyst. Twenty-five thousand dollars on this issue, not 63. He is printing them now. That is just the first
