

SENATOR DECAMP: The other is changing the word "significantly"...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Strike the word "significantly".

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay just as a practical matter, if you could get both your amendments or something that was acceptable in that form, would you...I am not asking you to support the bill, I don't want to ask the impossible, but would you decide that is time to quit and let it go one way or the other?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I have no more amendments to offer but that doesn't say I won't discuss the bill as long as it is before us. But it won't be before us because I am adding amendments or offering amendments to it.

SENATOR DECAMP: Hmmm.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What are you asking me to do, to get everybody (interruption).

SENATOR DECAMP: Well, I was trying to see if we just adopted your two amendments.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I can't speak for anybody but myself, Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Well, if you got those two amendments, would that be enough to make you happy, not happy, but...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I wouldn't offer any more amendments. That is all that I can say.

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay, and if those amendments aren't adopted, what would you do?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who knows. I don't like to say that because I don't want it to sound like (interruption).

SENATOR DECAMP: I understand. I understand.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR DECAMP: Would you change the word "significantly"
