

place that in the statute for the current year because of the inability to be able to address all of the conditions that are proposed.

SENATOR CARSTEN PRESIDING

SENATOR CARSTEN: One minute.

SENATOR WARNER: With that, Mr. President, I move the amendment be adopted.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Then, if the Chair understands correctly, we are talking to the committee amendment. Mr. Clerk, we have an amendment to the committee amendment. Is that correct?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp would move to amend the Appropriations Committee amendment. I guess Senator DeCamp doesn't want his amendment now.

SENATOR CARSTEN: You going to withdraw it? You going to withdraw the amendment, Senator? What...

SENATOR DECAMP: I would like to print it in the Journal before I ever did anything on it because...

SENATOR CARSTEN: Okay, then we will pass over it just for the moment then. Right? Okay. Senator Lynch, please, on the committee amendment.

SENATOR LYNCH: Mr. President, members, Senator Warner, now the committee amendment we are talking about is an amendment that had to do with prohibiting the employees of the state from using the CIR for this coming year. Is that right?

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Warner, will you respond please?

SENATOR WARNER: Senator Lynch, the bill has the prohibition for '86-87 and '87-88.

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay.

SENATOR WARNER: What the committee amendment does is retains the current year that we are appropriating, '86-87...
