

This is another date. No operating radio, no operating marker, no speaker, no nothing. So don't you tell me that that little box is going to be a safety feature, because that little box doesn't work and here is the proof. Anybody wants to come up and read these reports, they are filed with the railroad, they are filed with Washington, D.C., and all you have to do is read them. All you have to do is read the other side. Now, that is debate, Senator DeCamp, when you hear the other side. That is debate, Senator Hefner, when the $6 million isn't going to be returned. And you can read the letter right here. You can read it. Same way with Senator Hannibal. They are not going to give that money back. You've got more farmers in your district than anybody else, Senator Hefner,...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...they're not going to get the money.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR HABERMAN: So don't believe everything you hear from the other side. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Labeledz, please.

SENATOR LABEDZ: I call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 12 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Debate does not cease. Senator Pappas.

SENATOR PAPPAS: Mr. Speaker, colleagues, I rise to support the kill motion for obvious reasons. I, too, was a co-sponsor of the original bill a couple of years ago, LB 179. And I'd like to know if Senator Hannibal would answer a couple of questions for me.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hannibal, will you respond please.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: I'll try.
