

time, so that we will know shall we totally deregulate the telephone industry at this point, if it is in the best interest of the public, or is it not in the best interest of the public. If not, that is the time that we will look at it and readdress our concerns. So, for these reason, I'm not going to be able to support this part of the amendment. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Smith has just spoken. Senator Abboud, do you wish to speak on this point?

SENATOR ABOUD: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: Mr. President, I would move that we adjourn until eight-thirty in the morning, March 26.

PRESIDENT: Motion is that we adjourn until eight-thirty tomorrow morning. Machine vote has been requested. Would you amend...the Speaker wants to know...

SENATOR WITHEM: Nine o'clock is fine, I was presumptuous. I apologize.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adjourn until nine tomorrow morning. And the...matters for the record, Mr. Clerk. Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, is this the last amendment on the bill?

CLERK: No, sir.

SPEAKER NICHOL: How many do you have?

CLERK: Depends, I've got a motion to indefinitely postpone, and an amendment...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. I would suggest that we do adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow. And, of course, you know tomorrow evening we go late, until seven, and we'll not break for the dinner hour in the evening, but we'll go back to work at two in the afternoon after the lunch break. So, from two to seven is going to be quite a drag. So I suggest that we do...
