

proofread the resolution I failed to read the language at the bottom correctly. The figure $300,050 is in as opposed to $350,000. What I am asking you to vote on is to correct my small error or $45,000 (sic) by making the language read $350,000. Incidentally as Senator Warner correctly points out, this is not appropriational language. This simply is language that sets a standard. So I would ask that the amendment be adopted instanter.

PRESIDENT: Motion is the adoption of the Johnson amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Motion is the adoption of the motion is the adoption of the Johnson amendment. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted. Now we are back to the resolution. Senator Johnson, what do you want to say further?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I'm going to just ask that the resolution be adopted. It's very self-explanatory. This body does not have to worry, at this moment, about the appropriational language. As Senator Warner so ably pointed out, the appropriational language will be offered as an amendment in the appropriate form to the mainline budget bill that is going through, assuming the appropriational language is needed. Now the only way it would not be needed would be through some reallocation of money for the Legislative Council. But Senator Carsten and I will visit about that. Senator Warner and I will visit about that. And we will take care of whatever we have to take care of as an amendment on Select File to the appropriations bill. This resolution, right now, simply sets out the standards and parameters of the tax incidence and government financing study. I would ask your support of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I kind of hesitate to rise again, but I feel I need to. Senator Johnson has laid out the format very well. But one other addition that I think is vitally important in the procedure that this resolution proposes that when it is completed, that the annual update, with our computer system as it is now in place
