

about. Just like being on a slide, going down hill on waxed paper and you can't get off and there is cement at the bottom, and you are not going to land on your feet, and it is going to take you a long time to get up. I think government should do what it can to make that landing a little less hard, a little less painful. It is still going to be painful. It is painful to have to give up a way of life. It is painful to have to give up your business. It is painful to have to leave that occupation that you've been in all your life, but I think it ought to be incumbent upon us to provide at least some assistance to those people that make that transition. And admittedly, admittedly Senator Warner is also right. We may begin to have to look at the revenue side of the budget in order to do it. Now I'm well aware of that, I think you ought to be as well. I appreciate Senator Warner for bringing that up. I ask for the adoption of this amendment to LB 1251.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Thank you, Senator Vickers. Senator Vickers was closing on his amendment. The question is, shall the amendment be adopted? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, in order to save time, I think I'd just ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: The house is under call. Please push your green button in and show your presence. All those within earshot of my voice report to the Chamber and record your presence, the house is under call. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. We're looking for Senator Beyer, please report in please. Senator Conway, please report to the Chamber. Senator Lamb, Senator Wesely, please. Speaker Nichol, please. Senator Conway, Senator Wesely, Senator Lamb, and Senator Nichol, please report to the Chamber, we are under call. Senator Vickers, we are still looking for Senator Wesely and Senator Lamb. Senator Lamb has appeared. What would you wish to do? Senator Wesely, would you please report to the Chamber, please. We are under call. Senator Vickers, we are still looking for Senator Wesely, and we can't seem to locate him yet. We are looking for him. Senator Wesely has arrived. If he'd punch his button in, the Clerk will call the roll.
