LB 788

SENATOR LANDIS: We do have some that are not present, or at least have not checked in.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well then, I would prefer that we wait until everyone who is not excused is here.

SENATOR LANDIS: The two are Senators Lamb and Rod Johnson. If the Sergeant-at-Arms would make an attempt to return those two senators to the floor.

SENATOR HIGGINS: If it is going to take a long time, you can go ahead. I don't know if this is permitted, go ahead and start the call.

SENATOR LANDIS: Then at the end, if they're here, they can cast their votes.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Right.

SENATOR LANDIS: We'll be in a regular order of roll call on this amendment to LB 788. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken as found on page 1889 of the Legislative Journal.) 18 ayes, 20 nays, Mr. President.

SENATOR LANDIS: The motion fails. There being no lights, Senator Lundy to move the bill. I understand there is another amendment, Senator Lundy, excuse me.

CLERK: Excuse me, Senator. Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend the bill. (Chambers amendment appears on page 1890 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, my amendment will be found on page 3, if any of you are interested in locating it. If you look on page 3 and go to line 23, after the word "person", add "for money or anything of value". And that the language would read thusly, it shall be unlawful for a person to knowingly possess within intent to rent, sell, deliver, distribute, trade or provide to any person for money or anything of value, any visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct and so forth. Now I'm going to have to go back for the record if no other purpose and explain this bill because Senator Higgins I don't think has read all of the terms of it and understands what can be done under this bill. She said the
