

April 2, 1986

LB 788

amendment, I went up to the Clerk's desk and looked at the amendment, it really doesn't apply to anything. Mr. President, could you have the Clerk read the amendment to the body one more time.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Abboud. Clerk, can you read Senator Chambers' amendment.

CLERK: Mr. President, the amendment would read as follows: On page 2, line 23, after the word "person", add "for money or anything of value", page 2, line 23.

SENATOR ABOUD: Line 23. Maybe Senator Chambers...would Senator Chambers yield to a question?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR ABOUD: Senator Chambers, maybe I have a different copy here, but I was looking on page...were you referring to page 3 or page 2?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Page 3.

SENATOR ABOUD: Does the amendment read page 2?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Line 23.

SENATOR ABOUD: I believe the amendment reads page 2.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, does it read page 2?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It is supposed to read page 3, Senator Abboud, line 23.

CLERK: Would you like me to make that change, Senator?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, if you will, and that is what I was reading from. I was reading page 3, line 23 and discussing that throughout. Thanks for bringing that to my attention.

SENATOR ABOUD: Thank you, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator Abboud.

11231