

April 3, 1986

MRS. EGGING: Well, I guess I'm so used to speaking to my family, it is hard to know what to say here. I just hope I can keep on being an example to them and all the other mothers. I think it is one of the most important careers we can have.

PRESIDENT: Mrs. Egging, would you just stay there a moment, please, and I'll just announce that the 13 children of Mrs...13 children of Mrs. Egging are under the south balcony, and not to be...I will announce at this time that the members of the Cabela family are under the north balcony. So let's give a big hand for the Mother of the Year and the families.

(Applause.)

MRS. EGGING: In fact, we have 33 with grandchildren and spouses and children here. It's quite a group.

PRESIDENT: Senator Harris.

SENATOR HARRIS: Thank you, Mr. President. It gives me a great deal of pleasure to introduce a constituent and neighbor who, on the basis of her devotion to her family and special qualities as a mother to her three children, has been selected as the Young Mother Representative for Nebraska for 1986. The recipient of this award graduated from the University of Nebraska with a degree in social work, and she views her opportunity to be a parent as the best possible career. She was nominated for the honor by the Young Mother Study and Support Group, of which she is a member. She is currently the treasurer of Nebraska Mothers Association. Ladies and gentlemen, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to introduce the Young Mother Representative for Nebraska, 1986, Deborah Cabela.

(Applause.)

MRS. CABELA: I would just like to say thank you very much for taking time out of your busy schedule to honor us this way. I know you have a lot of do here. I probably will never get back here again. Thanks a lot.

PRESIDENT: That completes the ceremony. May we again express our appreciation for you ladies coming in here and having received this honor in our Legislative Chamber. Nice to see you Mrs. Egging, Mrs. Cabela, Mrs. Sitorius. If the escorts would please escort our guests out of the Chamber. Thank you for your attendance.
