CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of Senator Johnson's amendment to his own amendment.

SENATOR CARSTEN: The   amendment to the amendments have been adopted.   Now back on the committee amendments.   Senator Johnson.   Excuse me, do you have another amendment, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Hartnett would move to amend.
(The Hartnett amendment appears on page 1949 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Hartnett, you have an amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR HARTNETT: This restores, there is a handout coming out, but it simply restores the language to what a lottery, defines lotteries the same as it was before.   It is found on page 375, Article XXVIII, Section 11-01. I simply move to adopt the same language as we have right now in the lottery bill.   Thank you.

SENATOR CARSTEN: I will go down the list again to see if Senator Hefner, do you wish to speak on the...Senator Hefner, do you want to speak on the Hartnett amendment?

SENATOR HEFNER: Excuse me, Mr. President, what is the question?

SENATOR CARSTEN: Do you want to speak on the Hartnett...

SENATOR HEFNER: No, I will speak on the other one.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Hall, do you want to speak on it?
Senator DeCamp. Senator Vard Johnson, please, on the amendment to the committee amendments by Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: A quick comment. LB 837 which is now the content of this amendment rewrote a lot of the bingo, the lottery laws without making significant substantive changes, and I specifically asked the counsel of the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee whether the changes in the   lottery   law   were substantive, and he thought they were not.   However, Senator Hartnett has noted that there is a little change which does affect a current perfectly lawful operation in Bellevue. I have touched base with people who are concerned about the current lawful operation. It is not a video slot operation. It is not an electronic operation. Everybody says they ought to go on, it ought to be left, so I said to Senator Hartnett your going back
