LB 1027

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Warner, is this a motion to reconsider?

SENATOR WARNER: That is not the motion I made, Mr. President.

SENATOR CARSTEN: No, I understand that.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Is it the same amendment?

SENATOR WARNER: Well, I would certainly yield to the Chair, since the amendment was adopted, I don't know how I can reconsider an amendment to the amendment that has now been adopted. So I offer the amendment to the bill as a whole.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Stand at ease while the Chair thinks or doesn't think or something.

SENATOR WARNER: If it would help, Mr. President, to...

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: If it would help and if the body is willing, I would...if the bill is advanced and if it was in order to move to have it returned for a specific amendment yet today so we don't spend a lot of time and money printing, why I would be willing to do that if that would be a more appropriate procedure.

SENATOR CARSTEN: The Chair is going to rule that the motion is in order, that he was on the prevailing side, and that it is, but treating it inasmuch as the motion is the same it has got to be a reconsideration motion in the eyes of the Chair. I so rule.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I would move for a reconsideration to consider Senator Hartnett's amendment.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Okay, the motion is to reconsider the action of the adoption of the Hartnett amendment and it is debatable. Senator Hoagland, please, on the motion to reconsider. Pardon. A call of the house has been requested. Senator Marsh, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR MARSH: I am sorry, Mr. Chairman. I understood you had recognized Senator Hoagland, so that the other issue is not
