

driver's license.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Suspension of the driver's licence, I understand that.

SENATOR HABERMAN: That is right, and the other one is the time of loss if you refuse to take the alcoholic test from six months to a year or from a year to six months.

SPEAKER NICHOL: I would rule that the issue as to the amount of penalty and the time frames that you are suggesting have been before the committee, and Senator Hoagland, I would ask you if that is correct, and if that is correct, then I would rule that it is germane. Senator Hoagland, is that correct as I stated?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Yes. Senator Haberman's amendment deals with two issue, both of which are currently dealt with in LB 153.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, so I rule that it is germane and it does have time. Senator Higgins, please, your light is on. Senator Higgins. Senator Higgins, your light is on.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President. If we are talking about the germaneness of it, we are not on that then?

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, we are past that.

SENATOR HIGGINS: What was the decision, then?

SPEAKER NICHOL: The decision that it is germane and we are back to the motion of Senator Haberman's to change the time.

SENATOR HIGGINS: And Senator Chizek's motion, can we divide the question?

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, we did not divide it.

SENATOR HIGGINS: And it cannot be, did you say?

SPEAKER NICHOL: That is correct.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Sieck, please.

SENATOR SIECK: Yes, Mr. President, I have a question of Senator
