

serious injury, and even death as a condition of going to school. They are the only students who are required to be outside of the classroom more time than in it, and as a matter of fact spend more time in pursuit of UN-L football than professional football players in the National Football League or the United States Football League.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Did you say $12,000 a year for 100 players?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You caught me the other day on a situation and if my mathematics are correct that is 1,200,000.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, I stand corrected. Add another zero or two to that. (Laughter.) Thank you, Senator Nichol, I knew you would make that correction. Nobody else was paying attention. They could have caught me in an error again.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Excuse me, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: For what purpose do you rise, Senator?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm offering that amendment to the claims bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, Senator Marsh behind you, and I'm asking for what purpose she rises.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You said Senator Chambers.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Oh, I miss...you look kind of alike and I...(laughter.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We are both short.

(Laughter.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Excuse me, Senator Chambers, let me recognize Senator Marsh.
