

for your attention.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp, others, please let me have your attention a moment. This is the third time I have spoken since lunch. Look at the number of bills you have between now and the time we quit tonight. We have wasted an hour on this bill. We have three more amendments on this bill. And this is what I am talking about when you attempt to make over a bill the last minute in the last days. You are spending the time of the rest of us senators on a bill or two or three bills that should have been worked out a long time ago. This is ridiculous and unless you stay till midnight, I doubt if you get through with these bills today. This is the last day for these bills. I am trying to tell you something but, no, you are not listening. It is all right with me. If you want to waste all your time on one or two or three bills, it is all right and let the rest go down the drain. But I will tell you, it is not all right with the rest of the senators and I think this is terrible to be doing this sort of thing. Please, let's get down to business and roll on with these things. And if you are attempting to make over a bill again, I suggest you don't try it at this late date. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Will members please record your presence up here, please. Senator Schmit, would you put on your green light? Senator Scofield, would you record your presence, please. Senator Scofield. We are trying to get the members of the house to record your presence because we are under call. Senator Landis, please. Members, please take your seats. The rules is that members are to be in your seats during the time the house is under call. (Gavel.) We believe there are a lot of you here who have not recorded your presence. Please, if you will please take your seats and record your presence. One member is excused at the present time. So we are looking for Senator Goodrich. We have got him. Senator McFarland. Senator McFarland. Senator McFarland is the only one. Now you tell us when we can go ahead, Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Board vote.

PRESIDENT: Board vote. We started a board vote and it is all mixed up now so we can't receive that unless we have call ins. Call ins or a roll call. Roll call vote has been requested. That will be the most expeditious. The Clerk will call the roll and can we have it quiet, please. Record your vote aye or nay on the Sieck amendment to LB 1016. The Clerk will call the
