LB 1016, 1177

themselves.

PRESIDENT: Senator Pappas...I mean Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, I, too, rise to support the Schmit amendment. As Senator Schmit pointed out, there are some unique problems because of some of the actions at the federal level in regard to the red meat industry and it seems appropriate to me that to put it very bluntly that those monies that they have been collecting from us would be used to do something beneficial for a change. So I would hope that you would adopt this amendment and would urge its adoption.

PRESIDENT: Anybody else wish to speak? Senator Schmit, do you want to close? The motion is to adopt the amendment offered by Senator Schmit to LB 1016. Please record your vote aye or nay. You are voting on the Schmit amendment to LB 1016. Please record your vote aye or nay. Please record your vote aye or nay to the Schmit amendment. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.
