LB 1251

compromise is not a sign of weakness, but of constructive cooperation. Let us remember that commitment must be demonstrated by action and not by words alone. As we move forward let us recall the words of Hannibal as he prepared to cross the Swiss Alps, we will either find a way, or make one. Those words, I'm sure, that you all recall as being uttered here by our Governor on January 6, 1983.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR L. JOHNSON: I think our committee has followed those guidelines. It is apparent that prioritization is in order, and we are in step with those remarks so quoted. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We're going to need to move along because we have about eight speakers left on this one item. Senator Vard Johnson, then Senator Hannibal.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I'm going to pass.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hannibal. Senator Warner, then Senator Marsh. Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: I'll wait awhile.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, I was ready to call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Do you?

SENATOR MARSH: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. Question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. This is to cease debate. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Debate has ceased. Senator Warner, do you wish to close on this?

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, just
