

people, who have been unemployed, who are being forced to take social services, to understand that the more you pay, the more brains you buy when you look at 49 state senators making $4,800 a year. It doesn't make a lot of sense. I guess we are here because we are dedicated to what we are doing, or perhaps we have other businesses on the side that support us, like some of the constitutional officers have. For this reason I will not vote for any increase for the constitutional officers. And I hate to do that to my good friend the Lieutenant Governor. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: See you later, Senator Higgins. (Laughter.)
Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: Question has been called, and it may not be necessary, thank you. Senators Withem and DeCamp, you didn't wish to speak, did you? Therefore, the debate is over. Senator Landis, you may close.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know this will be coming up for a machine vote, and because this may well be the last bill of the evening, could be, it is time to have a roll call...I'm sorry, a call of the house to check in and then we can proceed with a machine vote.

PRESIDENT: Call of the house has been requested. The question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Motion is to cease...no. The motion is to have a call of the house. You may record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 23 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: We are under call by that motion. Check in, please. Members, please check in on your green lights. Senator Wesely, Senator Lynch, Senator Baack, Senator Goll, Senator Pappas, Senator Chronister, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Peterson. Senators Lynch and Labedz, Hoagland, Pappas, Peterson, and Pirsch, Wesely, and Chronister, and Barrett. Senator Pirsch, would you record your presence. Senator Wesely and Senator Hoagland. All members are here. And Senator Landis may close as he wishes on this amendment to LB 43.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you. To remind the body, just so it will
