

justification for what the Revenue Committee did, the farm equipment dealers were concerned about the fact that a piece of equipment sold used through their facility was subject to the sales tax whereas the same piece of equipment sold at a farm auction was not subject to that sales tax. Interestingly, they have not been here this session to defend their position, whereas many of the farm organizations have been quite outspoken. I think Senator Rod Johnson touched upon it in an earlier bill today and I would say that if the bill does not move as you had hoped, Senator Vard Johnson, that will probably be the main measure of weakness and I do thank you, however, for enlightening me and reassuring me that the occasional sale between two individuals is not subject to tax. Thank you very much. I now ask your unanimous consent to withdraw the amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: It is withdrawn. Do you have anything...? All right, the question is, shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? I guess I should say, all provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted that care to? No one is excused. Record, Mr. Clerk. A roll call vote has been requested.

CLERK: (Record vote read as found on page 2368 of the Legislative Journal.) 23 ayes, 20 nays, on passage of the bill with the emergency clause attached, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill fails with the emergency clause attached. We will now vote on it without the emergency clause. The question is, shall LB 1027 pass without the emergency clause attached. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Record vote read as found on page 2369 of the Legislative Journal.) 26 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President, on the passage of the bill without the emergency clause attached.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill passes without the emergency clause attached. LB 1027A, please.

CLERK: (Read LB 1027A on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 1027A pass?
