LB 911

Other than enacting this and straightening up, I don't see any other way to control what's going on right now. I have...really hesitate in passing a bill like that, but some of us are desperate for some kind of help and with that I'll quit.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the body, Senator Hoagland, would you reply to a couple of questions, please?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Sure, I'll try, Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Hoagland, have you ever served on a city council?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: No.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you ever served on a county board?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: No.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you. Senator Hefner, would you answer a question, please?

SENATOR HEFNER: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you ever served on a city council?

SENATOR HEFNER: Yes, I served on the city council...

SENATOR HABERMAN: Were you ever offered a bribe?

SENATOR HEFNER: No, I wasn't.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you. Senator Lynch, may I ask you a question, please?

SENATOR LYNCH: I'll certainly try, Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you ever served on a county board?

SENATOR LYNCH: Oh, for about seven terms.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Ever offered a bribe?

SENATOR LYNCH: Me?
