

and the truth of the matter is the dollars are always there for a debtor. The dollars are there for a debtor. I, truly, do not believe that credit will be dried up. Credit may be more stringent. It may be more stringent but let me ask you, is stringency in credit at this time a totally bad policy? We saw what happened with overextensions of credit in the 1970s. We saw what happened when we were on a great buying-on-time spree. Are any strictures on credit opportunities a bad policy for our time? I submit not. LE 999 is a well crafted piece of legislation. We are learning from our experiences in the last several years. If we can only make this apply to future generations, if that be the case, it is a good piece for future generations. We should go ahead and pass this bill. And with that, I will withdraw my motion.

PRESIDENT: No further motion, the Clerk may begin to read the bill.

CLERK: (Read LB 999 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 999 pass? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Please record your vote on the final passage of LE 999. Have you all voted on final passage of LB 999? Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See pages 2437-38 of the Legislative Journal.) 30 ayes, 17 nays, 1 present and not voting, 1 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: A majority of the members having voted in the affirmative, LE 999 is declared passed. The Clerk will proceed to read LE 1007.

CLERK: (Read LB 1007 on Final reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 1007 pass? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted on 1007? Record the vote.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See pages 2438-39 of the Legislative Journal.) 46 ayes, 2 nays, 1 excused and not voting, Mr. President.