

this bill. I hope that you will overrule the Chair and at least give us a chance to vote on the amendment itself.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Morehead is next but may I introduce Senator Merle Von Minden from Allen, Nebraska, former Senator here. Senator Von Minden, will you step out and take a bow. Thank you. Senator Morehead, please.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Mr. President, I move the previous question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question has been called. The question is, shall debate cease? Let's try it with a voice vote, all those in favor of ceasing debate say aye. Opposed nay. Debate is ceased. Senator Haberman, it was your...Senator Chambers motion, did you want to give Senator Haberman some of your time? All right, Senator Haberman, you may close then.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I will give Senator Labedz one minute of my closing.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Wait a minute, wait a minute, I don't know if you can give somebody else's time.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Why not?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, go ahead and talk awhile and we will see what happens. All right, you get half the time, Senator Haberman, and, Senator Labedz, you get half the time.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Go ahead, Labedz.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is counting away.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I don't really think I need half of the time but I did want to point something out in Dr. Wright's letter that Senator Haberman passed out. The paragraph said, "I would like to point out that a physician granting a medical exemption may be held personally responsible for his action and should be prepared to defend the medical exemption in court. For this reason, please give appropriate attention to this issue." Well, then I am putting on record that the state also should give appropriate attention, because if someone is forced to wear a seat belt, and if it is a member of my family or your
