

Joanne tells me that in order for you to have your bills back by Saturday morning, she will need them in by approximately ten o'clock tomorrow, which is Friday. So if you have a bill or you are thinking of getting a bill in, please try to do it by ten o'clock tomorrow. Otherwise, when you get your bill following Saturday sometime, next Monday or next week, in two weeks, then you will need to suspend the rules to consider your bill. So to save yourself a lot of wear and tear in the future in trying to get a suspension of the rules for your bill, I strongly urge you to get them in tomorrow by approximately ten o'clock so that we don't have a problem. I think most of you are in pretty good shape. But in case you are working on a bill that is going to take some time, please try to get them in by ten o'clock tomorrow morning. That way you will not need to ask for a suspension of the rules later. Thank you. Senator Pappas, how are you coming? After Senator Pappas's bill, are there any others of you that have a bill that you wish to enter today? All right, go ahead, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, three new bills. (Read the following bills for the first time by title: LB 15-17. See pages 12-13 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, that is all that I have.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Scofield of Chadron, would you take your microphone and adjourn us until nine o'clock tomorrow, please.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Mr. Speaker, I move that we adjourn until tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, nine o'clock tomorrow, eight-thirty Saturday. Thank you for coming.
