

eight-thirty. May I please see the hands of those who will not be here tomorrow at eight-thirty, so I want to make sure we have a...those who will not be here. One, two...Senator Lamb, are you going to be here tomorrow, Senator Lamb? All right. Otherwise, eight-thirty tomorrow morning and the meeting should be very short. We'll be at ease for a few moments, still waiting for Senator Haberman's bill and anybody else that has one. If you're working on a bill, please let me know.

EASE

SPEAKER NICHOL: I understand from Senator Schmit and Senator Haberman that they will have bills tomorrow. For the last time, are there any of you who have a bill that you would like to enter today? If I am missing anybody, please...one more time, is there anyone who has a bill that they would like to put in today? Remember, eight-thirty, tomorrow. Okay, Mr. Clerk, do you have something to read in?

CLERK: Mr. President, new bill, LB 27, by Senator DeCamp. (Read by title for the first time as found on pages 23-24 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, Senator Vickers would like unanimous consent to add his name as co-introducer to LB 17.

SPEAKER NICHOL: No objection? So ordered.

CLERK: That's all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, Senator Eret, please.

SENATOR ERET: Mr. Speaker, I move that we adjourn until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow, October 19, 1985.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We'll hold that just a moment. The Clerk has another thing. Thank you, Senator Eret.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have hearing notices from the Public Works Committee for Wednesday, October 23, and from the Appropriations Committee for Monday, October 21 and Tuesday, October 22. Those are offered by Senator Schmit as Chair of Public Works and Senator Lowell Johnson as Vice-Chair of the Appropriations Committee.
