

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes, Mr. Speaker, I guess under our rules I have to ask for a call of the house before I close so I'd like to have a call of the house, please.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 10 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The house is under call. Will you please return to your desk and record your presence. If you're not in the Legislative Chambers, please return promptly and record your presence so we can continue. Ladies and gentlemen in your office, please return to the Legislative Chamber so we can continue. We're holding up progress here. Really appreciate it if you would do that. Mr. Sergeant-at-Arms, would you go to Senator DeCamp's office and please bring him here and anybody else that is there. Senator Goll, would you record your presence, please. We're looking for Senator Wesely, Senator Lamb, Senator Hefner, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Lowell Johnson, Senator Chronister, Senator Withem, Senator Abboud, Senator Haberman, Senator Vickers. Senator Haberman, would you press in, please. Thank you. We're looking for Senator Withem, Senator DeCamp and Senator Vickers. We're looking for Senator Withem and Senator Chronister. Please return to the sanctuary. Okay, Senator Vard Johnson, would you like to close, please.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I will, yes, Senator Nichol. Are there still two people...or is there one person who is not excused?

SPEAKER NICHOL: I understand Senator Chronister believes that he is excused. We though he had come back, but he was excused earlier.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I hope that you'll bear with me...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Excuse me, Senator Johnson. (Gavel). Let's pay attention to the speaker, please.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: As I am closing on what I think is a very important issue, I'm obviously operating under a
