

return and record your presence. Thank you. Senator Morehead, would you record your presence, please. Senator Labeledz, would you record your presence, please. Senator Warner, record your presence, please. Senator Rod Johnson we're looking for. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 14 nays, Mr. President, to adjourn.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, we're not adjourned yet. Senator Haberman, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, is the intention to, beings we're not going to be here Friday, to adjourn early tomorrow?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, I hadn't planned that and we had the agenda out for a full day because we have not covered very much ground today.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, I think I'll change my...can I change my motion?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, you can make a new motion. The old one failed.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I move we adjourn until Monday morning at 9:00 a.m.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, the Clerk tells me that is out of order until we have some intervening business.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, my motion to adjourn didn't fail because we asked for a call of the house, didn't we, to take the vote?

SPEAKER NICHOL: It still...(inaudible)

SENATOR HABERMAN: So the movement to adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning is still before the body.

SPEAKER NICHOL: No. It failed. What else do we have there, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment to the Appropriations Committee amendment is that offered by Senator Johnson. I'm sorry, it is Appropriation Committee,
