SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You said we won't meet tomorrow?

SPEAKER NICHOL: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why not?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, it has been planned that way for the past...since we started the session.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What is the plan though? I didn't know anything about that till this morning. Somebody told me it had to do with shooting turkeys.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, it could be.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is that what it is?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, some are going turkey hunting, that is correct. Some are doing other things.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: When a member of one species consumes one of its own members, isn't that cannibalism?

SPEAKER NICHOL: That's right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So if it kills one of its own, it's murder. Some people say the whole session has been murder so that is an appropriate reason I guess to take off tomorrow.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes. Senator Higgins, do you wish to speak?

SENATOR HIGGINS: Just a point of information, Mr. Speaker. Are we going to adjourn at noon today?

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, the plan today is adjourn when we get through with this agenda that is in front of you.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Once we finish the agenda then all those that want to go shooting turkeys can go shooting turkeys.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes, go turkey...whatever.
