

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced. Do you have matters for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's Opinion addressed to Senator DeCamp regarding provisions of LB 3. (See pages 130-32 of the Legislative Journal.)

New A bill offered by Senator Warner. (Read title for the first time to LB 7A. See page 132 of the Legislative Journal.)

That is all that I have, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: We will now go to Select File. Is Senator Hall available? What is next on the agenda?

CLERK: Well, Mr. President, we are back to LB 1. The Legislature considered LB 1 yesterday. The first motion I have on the bill this morning is by Senator Rod Johnson. Actually, there were other amendments filed but Senator Johnson's is a priority motion. Senator Johnson would move to reconsider the vote on the Lamb amendment to LB 1 yesterday and the Lamb amendment is on page 84 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Senator Johnson.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, members of the body, unfortunately yesterday Senator Schmit and Senator Scofield and myself were called away to address a water conference at East Campus and were unable, at least I was unable to be here to vote on this particular issue. It was one that if I had been here I was going to support. I am not sure how my other two colleagues will vote on this particular motion. But I wanted to bring it back up. Senator Lamb approached me on it and I certainly was more than willing to sponsor a reconsideration motion on this particular amendment primarily because I think it is one that is very important to agriculture and one that is very important to the decision that we make here in this body. Through the past couple of weeks since we have been here, I have been trying to analyze why we are here and what we hope to accomplish by being here. It seems to me that as the process has worked its way through we have actually done nothing more than do a knee jerk reaction to the problem, the financial crisis. We have a financial crisis. We have taken some steps, I guess
