

want to preclude those who support a change but are reluctant to do it with the new bill but apparently not reluctant to LB 10 and I would hope they can at least have the two or three days to decide whether or not...or which bill they want to go with, whether or not they want to go with 10 or the new one. So I would hope we could proceed and adopt the amendment and advance the bill and then we will take the other one up tomorrow when it comes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp, would you close?

SENATOR DECAMP: Have you given your ruling?

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, sir.

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay. Why don't you give the ruling, I will make a challenge and get it over with real quick. I think we know the outcome.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. I will rule that we can discuss number 10 because of the content of it and because the content will be similar to whatever number the bill is attached if we have...when we have one from the Governor.

SENATOR DECAMP: Specifically because of the new call.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes. Okay. Then I would challenge and my arguments will be eminently simple, basically the same as before and to point this additional thing out. In talking to Senator Landis, talking to Senator Beutler, I think in talking to you, and anybody can correct me if I state this wrong, in talking to Senator Warner, I got the impression they would all agree that the constitutional seven-day rule would have to apply to LB 10. Is there anybody in disagreement with that? Senator Beutler. Senator Landis, you have heard...I think we all talked about that. If you accept the premise...yes, do you agree the seven-day rule applies to...

SENATOR LANDIS: I don't necessarily. No, I heard Senator Beutler say that but I won't say it doesn't apply. I would like to analyze it myself first.

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay. I think if you accept the premise,
