

originated from a family name of Dohert, and they hooked on an "O" and thought they'd make it sound Irish, and so that is the name O'Doherty's.

SENATOR GOLL: I see. But the upstairs is now no longer functional. Is that right?

SENATOR SCOFIELD: It is vacant and I assume now with the designation of historic site it is likely that perhaps it will be more likely to be restored.

SENATOR GOLL: Senator Scofield, I believe in that same previous conversation you told me there was a dance floor upstairs.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: There is a dance floor.

SENATOR GOLL: But you didn't mention that in...

SENATOR SCOFIELD: There is a dance floor as well upstairs.

SENATOR GOLL: And the dance floor was surrounded by apartments that were open for the...

SENATOR SCOFIELD: That's what I'm told.

SENATOR GOLL: Okay, well, thank you, Senator Scofield.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Incidentally, while we are on this subject, Senator Goll, I didn't mention this but you might be interested in knowing that this place is particularly famous now for its wine cellar and I would recommend it to you.

SENATOR GOLL: Senator Scofield, do I presume that this building also has the proper licensing for wine cellars?

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Absolutely, absolutely.

SENATOR GOLL: I see. Thank you.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Thank you, Senator Goll.

PRESIDENT: Does anyone else wish to extract further
