

SPEAKER NICHOL: Is the Wesely amendment to the committee amendment the first time it has been before the Legislature? Is that your question?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Yes, we just passed it out this morning, but...

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay, was it in the Journal before in any form?

SENATOR WESELY: No.

SENATOR DECAMP: So this is the first instance it is before the Legislature here on November 8 at nine thirty-nine. Is that correct?

SENATOR WESELY: John, they only add a couple of words to the thing.

SENATOR DECAMP: Oh, more than that.

SENATOR WESELY: Oh.

SENATOR DECAMP: Okay, just wanted to make clear that in case this would happen to pass, which I hope it does, quite frankly. I mean, I think the legislation is needed, but I think the whole principle of the Legislature being whipped around on capricious things has to be dealt with too, and I wonder if this affects or is affected like the Omaha, I think it was the Omaha National Bank case by the issue of an amendment being put on and changing the thing and not being there for seven days, so...and the bill itself was only before the Legislature for the first time, officially, today when it was ruled within the call. Just wanted to get that in the record.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. Senator Wesely, would you like to close on your amendment to the committee amendment?

SENATOR WESELY: Yes, I would. First off, again, the amendment to the committee amendment only adds "licensed" to
