

it the hardest. But why? If all you want an individual to do is sharpen a pencil and you have given him an electric pencil sharpener and he won't use that, he has a knife and he won't use that, he has a razor blade, he won't use that. So you ask him, why won't you sharpen this pencil? And he says, well, you haven't given me enough tools and implements to work with. So you say, well, what other tools do you want? Well, I don't know but give me something. These officials have every scrap of law providing all of the authority they need to do what the job entails. They simply will not do it. So the Legislature, being complicit with them, will pass another law designed to deceive the public into thinking that something is being done which, in fact, is not. This bill should not pass. I hope you will return it and strike the enacting clause.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall the bill be returned to strike the enacting clause? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record vote has been asked for. Have you all voted that care to? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Read the record vote as found on pages 218-19 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion failed. Excuse me. Senator Lamb.

CLERK: Excuse me, Senator. Senator Lamb voting no. I have him voting no, Senator. He is...Senator Haberman is present, Senator. 2 ayes, 21 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion fails. All right, the bill is already advanced so we will go to LB 7A. Senator Beutler, are you prepared on that or is there any change in it, I should say, perhaps.

CLERK: Mr. President, 7A is on Select File. I do not have any E & R amendments. I do have an amendment pending by Senator Beutler to the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I think you have had passed out to you a work sheet showing the A bill amendments or the effects of the
