

SENATOR VICKERS: Well, I hate to do this, but I'm not sure there is enough people around, but I guess I'll have to ask for a call of the house.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Do you wish to have a call of the house, Senator Vickers?

SENATOR VICKERS: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: All those in favor of the call of the house, please vote aye, those opposed vote nay. Record, please.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR HABERMAN: The house is under call. Will everybody please return to their desks and punch in or record their presence. Unauthorized staff people please leave the floor. We're looking for Senator Chronister, Senator Conway, Senator Hall, Senator Johnson, Rod Johnson, Senator Lamb, Senator Landis, Senator Nichol, Senator Pappas, Senator Scofield, would you please come in and punch in. We are under call. Senator Nichol, Senator Pappas, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Scofield, Senator Lamb. Senator Scofield, Senator Pappas, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Nichol. Senator Vickers, we seemed to have located everybody except Senator Scofield and Senator Pappas. All right. Do you wish a roll call vote? Reverse roll call vote, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken as found on pages 231-32 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR HABERMAN: The call is raised.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 3 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

SENATOR HABERMAN: The resolution is adopted. We will now move on to LR 20...we are now on the resolution as is amended. Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I find it slightly incredible there is a specific proposal before the Congress. You have repeatedly said how serious the farm credit crisis is and you've done just now a resolution, through gutting
