LB 3
LR 9

through this offering that is going before the Congress, and the bondholders are pushing it, and the farmers are leading the charge to get it done. Talk about lemmings. You got some lemmings. "Yahh".

SENATOR HABERMAN: You've heard the closing on LR 9. All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted, please? One more time, have you all voted, please? Mr. Clerk, please...Senator Vickers, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR VICKERS: Well, I guess I'd like to ask somebody to push their green button, just one person, but that's not going to happen. I suspect I'll have to ask for a call of the house, Mr. President.

SENATOR HABERMAN: A call of the house has been asked for. Do I see five hands? Thank you. All those in favor of the house going under call, please vote yes, those opposed vote no. Record, please.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to go under call.

SENATOR HABERMAN: The house is under call. Will everyone please return to their seats and check in. Senator Beutler, Senator Hannibal, Senator Labeledz, Senator Pirsch, Senator Lamb, will you please return to the Chambers, the house is under call. Senator Miller, Senator Smith, she is here. Senator Beutler, Senator Labeledz, Senator Marsh. Do you want to authorize call ins, Senator Vickers?

CLERK: Senator Beutler voting yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, on adoption of the resolution.

SENATOR HABERMAN: The resolution is adopted. Mr. Clerk, do you have anything to read into the record?

CLERK: Mr. President, one item, Senator Schmit would like to print amendments to LB 3 and that is all that I have. (See page 233 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Wesely, for what purpose do you
