

introduce legislative resolutions honoring people as a result of his private litigation, or his whatever. I guess I'm overwhelmed that the Legislature is now going to enter into kind of a new area. Somebody does good for us in a lawsuit, we herald them from the halls here and hope it will pay off better in the future or whatever. Maybe he could explain in more details as to why we are into this new ball game.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: (Microphone not activated immediately.) ...Senator Beyer and Senator Hoagland, I missed part of Senator Hoagland's in that. I think I'm very proud of...especially of the police...Sarpy County police, and also the Bellevue Police Department and also the Bellevue Volunteer Fire Department because they've done an excellent job. We have...we are the fourth largest city in the state and we still have a volunteer fire department. We have very, very professional people that serve on our volunteer fire department. With those words, I would like to go along with Senator Hoagland's resolution. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: There are no other lights. Thank you for the motion. Senator Hoagland, do you wish to close? May we have order in the Chamber, please. (Gavel.) Senator Hoagland. Senator Hoagland waives closing. All those in favor of adopting the resolution vote aye, opposed vote nay. Motion is the adoption of resolution 24 of Senator Hoagland. Please record your vote. Members are asked to record your vote. The motion before the house is the adoption of resolution 24. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: The resolution is adopted. We'll proceed to LR 26.

CLERK: LR 26 is offered by Senator Hoagland. It is found on page 216 of the Journal, encourages state agency heads to
