

Legislature would be representing my interests very well. Not the greatest good for the greatest number, but the greatest good as perceived by the most powerful in that particular situation. I'm glad that there were roll call votes taken on the tobacco tax because a comparison can be made with the votes this morning and votes that were given in times past and the kind of comments that were made on the floor in justification of raising the tax on tobacco. Well, now I'm going to sum up again. This is a little item that Senator Haberman is asking the Legislature to give to the public. It is not really a bone, it is a shred from a bone. The big interests have dined sumptuously. The Legislature has been the handmaiden and maybe if Senator... I don't see him so I won't call him by name, but he had tried to get the Legislature to do something that I was very much opposed to and if they are going to bow to one interest...

PRESIDENT: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...maybe they ought to go ahead and bow to all of them. But for this one situation I hope the public will be given a vote.

PRESIDENT: Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President. I would just like to ask Senator Haberman a question, if he would yield.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman. Members are properly to be in your seats anyway. We are on Final Reading. Senator Haberman, would you answer a question.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes, Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Senator "Hagen"...Hagen, this is going to be a bad day. Senator Rex Haberman, the $3.00 that you are talking about coming off the registration fee, when would the drivers get that $3.00 back? When would it be effective?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, the people when they go to register their automobiles, and the new registration, that is the time that the registration fee would drop $3.00 So it would cost $3.00 less.

SENATOR HIGGINS: And this would be dependent upon us doing
